NEO Tournaments

Ariel Sparrow and two of her teammates shot rounds in the 80s to lead Strongsville's girls to the Valley Division championship, while Stow's team and Twinsburg's Ashley Winston took River Division honors at Windmill Lakes.

Sparrow, a senior, was the Valley medalist with an 82 and was backed by a pair of 88s from Ali Jakubecz and Danielle Tracy as the Lady Mustangs won the title by 14 shots. Sophomore Natalie Goodson led Hudson to a runnerup finish with an 84. Winston's 86 led the River Division, while Stow won the team title with a score of 394.

CVC Tournament

Kenston's Nicki Henry earned medalist honors with a round of 7-over 79 and led the Lady Bombers to the team championship with a score of 367 at Punderson Golf Course.
