Fund-raiser scores the green

Kenston sophomore golfer Nicki Henry was producing birdies and eagles with a goal in mind other than trying to qualify for the Division I state tournament.

Henry got three family sponsors to pay her for the 37 birdies and two eagles she scored this season to raise funds for the Christie Kerr Birdies For A Cure, which fights breast cancer.

She raised $740, getting $10 a birdie from two sponsors. She said the amount they will pay for the eagles has not yet been determined.

"I read an article in a golf magazine called 'Golf For Women,' which told about LPGA player Christie Kerr's charity," Henry said, "and I thought if I could find some sponsors, I'd like to raise money for that worthwhile cause."

She said she was lucky her parents, Loren and Sue; her grandparents, Jack and Carol; and her older sister Kelly agreed to sponsor her.

Henry was hoping to add to her birdie total Tuesday in the Division I district at the Legends of Massillon, but she shot an 87 and missed qualifying for the state tournament as an individual by one stroke.

Marquard commits to CSU:

When St. Edward senior center fielder Vince Marquard takes the field as a college freshman, his parents won't have far to travel to see him play.

Marquard, a Westlake resident who batted .405 with 28 runs scored and 26 RBI for the Division I state champion Eagles last season, has made an oral commitment to Cleveland State.

"CSU has a lot to offer," said Marquard, a 5-10, 190-pounder.

Marquard, who will major in sports management, likes his chances of playing as a true freshman. "I don't know if I'll play left, right or center field," he said, "but I feel I'm sitting well with CSU's [baseball] program."

Coming Friday

At first glance, spectators might think Brunswick freshman Selena Pasadyn is at a meet to watch a sibling and has wandered away from her parents and onto the race course. But the 4-8, 72-pounder belongs. She's the Blue Devils' top varsity runner and school record holder — at the mere age of 12. Friday in The Locker Room.
