

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Alex DiPalma

School: Lake Catholic; Sport: Golf
Year: Senior

On the course: Was the medalist at the All-Catholic Invitational with a 70; also carded a 36 Fowler's Mill, a 37 at Black Brook and a 78 at Brunswick Hills

Off the course: Plans to play golf in college; favorite show is "Family Guy;" favorite food is Italian; favorite golfer is Rocco Mediate; favorite subject is world religions with Mr. Ellis.

Kelly Porten

School: Mayfield; Sport: Golf
Year: Senior

On the course: Fired a 45 at Fox Den and a 46 at Berkshire Hills; has a 45 average, best on the Wildcats

Off the course: Plans to major in music therapy in college; looking at Baldwin-Wallace, Wooster and Dayton; hobbies include playing the piano and trombone, sleeping, annoying Mr. Nidy, Dr. Palermo or Mr. Sanford; favorite show is "Psych;" lives by the quote "That's the sweetness"

Nicki Henry

School: Kenston; Sport: Golf
Year: Junior

On the course: Shot a school-record 36 at Barrington Country Club, and also had a 36 at Fowler's Mill.

Off the course: Is playing for the Bright Side of the Road Foundation (for ALS). Sponsors donate money for every birdie Henry makes this year; Favorite subject is science; favorite food is pasta

Jackie Profera

School: Berkshire; Sport: Volleyball
Year: Senior. Position: Outside hitter
On the court: In three victories, had 44 points, 12 aces, 50 digs, 34 kills and five blocks.

Off the court: "Jack Hammer" loves to go four-wheeling, camping, boating and fishing; favorite food is chicken tetrazzini; favorite movie is "Step Brothers;" lists the Cavaliers as her favorite sports team and enjoys all kinds of music except rock.

