

Chagrin Valley Times

ISSN 0194-3685

C4 THE TIMES, OCTOBER 1, 2009

Kenston's Henry is CVC golf MVP

Kenston's Nicki Henry was named most valuable player after taking medalist honors with a 76 at the girls' Chagrin Valley Conference golf tournament.

Orange won the tournament with a 358, followed by Kenston with a 362, Cuyahoga Heights with a 374, Hawken

School with a 396, Perry with a 408 and Aurora with a 424.

Other Bomber scores were: Lauren O'Connor, 88; Ali Read, 97; Carlee Ridgway, 101; Eleni Seminario, 103; and Tess Ferguson, 104.