Kenston Senior Athletes Earn Scholarships

Kenston High School seniors Nicki Henry, Lauren Landsman and Megan Wendel have all earned scholarships to continue their athletic and academic careers on the collegiate level.

Henry will be attending Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY. She finished fifth at this year's state golf championships in Columbus, was a First Team All-Ohio, First Team Academic All-Ohio, Chagrin Valley Conference MVP and First Team All-District selection this season.

Landsman will attend Winthrop University in Rockhill, S.C. She helped the Bombers to the number one state ranking among Division II volleyball teams and was a First Team All-CVC selection, First Team All-District and Third Team All-Ohio pick.

Wendel is headed to Gannon University in Erie, PA, to play volleyball. She was the Northeast Ohio District Player of the Year and Chagrin Valley Conference MVP in addition to earning First Team All-District and First Team All-Ohio honors.
